1. Actions from previous meeting:

- *We had a discussion about lunch choices – a wider variety has been requested – Ms Holliday has been discussing this with the catering company and they are looking into changing some of the yellow band options. Some suggestions from 4Sapphire are sandwiches, soup, wraps, omelettes and veggie burgers.
- *Pupils requested a book club in the library at lunchtimes – Niam and Lola will speak with Miss Brophy about this – reps to follow up
- *More lunch bands requested - spare lunch bands are available in Ms Holliday's office
- *Year 6 pupils have requested more board games for their classrooms for wet breaks – Mrs Walsh will get some more.
- *Ideas boxes - 5Orchid, 3Saffron, 3Daffodil, 2Mango, 2Coral

2. STEM week feedback – What did you learn – science, DT, maths? What challenged you/made you really think? What was the most memorable part of STEM week? What would make it even better next time? – reps to ask their classes and record responses in their red books. Year 5 and year 6 reps to carry out hands up survey on the sheets provided.

3. AOB

- Reps mentioned football-related incidents, particularly at lunchtime. Mrs Anwar-Simmons, Mr Homan and Miss Sookdele are meeting with companies to work on the next part of our playground project which will clearly mark out a football area along with some other new playground markings. Plans will be shared once we have them!

4. Date of next meeting: Thursday 14th March at 12:35
